

Y.M.C.A. Campaign Has Nearly Reached the $25,000 Mark

WORK TO BE CONTINUED UNTIL AT LEAST THE $40,000 GOAL HAS BEEN REACHED—SUCCESS IS ASSURED.

While the goal of the Y. M. C. A. Campaign has not yet been attained, indications are that the amount will be shortly reached. The work of covering the town requires more time than anticipated, and has not yet been completed.

Several enjoyable evenings were had by the workers at their get-together dinners in the Association Building, and the work as undertaken furnished much good-natured rivalry between the various teams. Excellent dinners were served by the Ladies' Auxiliary, provided from a special fund created by members of the Board of Directors.

That success is assured is indicated by the many workers' cards which are still out, and work will be continued until all have had an opportunity to participate in the biggest civic movement ever undertaken in the borough.

Many expressions of approval have been given—expressions that mean the thermometer in front of the building, which indicates the progress of the "drive," will still be going up after it has been taken down. For instance, a friend in giving $100.00 to the proposition says when he sees the swimming pool being dug, he will gladly give $250.00 more. Many have promised to increase their pledges if necessary, so that it will be seen that the success of the campaign in dollars is better even than the figure above indicates.

The Association is grateful for the assistance and good-will of the Town, and hopes and expects in due time to offer to the people of the community the most modern, complete, and well directed community center on the Main Line or in this part of the State.

Acknowledgment of all gifts and pledges will be made as early as possible after the work of tabulation has been completed.

INFORMAL RECEPTION.

An informal reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Peters, of Narberth, on Wednesday evening, November 5th, in honor of their son, Lester.

Among those present were: Miss Eleanor Reiss, Miss Catherine Turner and Mr. Elwood Reiss, of Narberth; Miss Marion Robertshaw, Miss Catherine McGinnis, Mr. Wm. Temme, Jr., Mr. Edwin Neuman, and Mr. Joseph Wagner, Jr., of Philadelphia.

Musical selections were rendered by Miss Turner, Miss Reiss and Miss Robertshaw, accompanied on the violin by Mr. Peters.

At a late hour the guests adjourned to the dining room, where an elaborate set-out awaited them.

The Women's Auxiliary Narberth Y.M.C.A.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Women's Auxiliary, held on Monday evening, it was decided to postpone the Mother Goose Carnival until February 13th and 14th, 1920.

Mrs. Romaine Hoffman and her capable committee will offer for sale during the second week of December one hundred and twenty celluloid dolls, similar to those which are delighting the children at the present time. These dolls will all be attractively dressed and sold at popular prices. They will make adorable stocking fillers, and we have no doubt will be sold in a very short time. Mrs. Hoffman will be glad to receive orders for them at any time.

Mrs. J. Taylor Darlington and her workers will also display seventy-five very "gifty" looking aprons during the same week. There will be bungalow and other styles attractively trimmed with lace and braid and should please the most particular purchasers.

The prices for both dolls and aprons will be attractive, and we invite you to inspect them before completing your Christmas shopping.

The social hour following the business meetings of the Board and Auxiliary on Monday evening proved unusually enjoyable to the sixty members and friends present, and we wish to thank the Corinthian Choral from Masonic Temple, which rendered such a delightful program of music, and to express our deep appreciation of their willingness to come out to our little home town and spend the evening with us.

Mrs. G. Merritt Davis also delighted her audience with her description of the Levinsky wedding.

Mrs. T. Noel Butler concluded the program with a group of songs rendered in an unusually pleasing manner.

The next regular meeting of the Auxiliary will be held on Monday, December 5th, at 8 o'clock.

Community Club Notes

Each year the first meeting of the Women's Community Club of our town has seemed the best, but the meeting held November 12th, at the Y. M. C. A., which opened the 1919-1920 season, does seem the best of all. The meeting was conducted by the club's most able and efficient President, Mrs. Clarence P. Fowler, who was presented with a new gavel by the Executive Committee of the club.

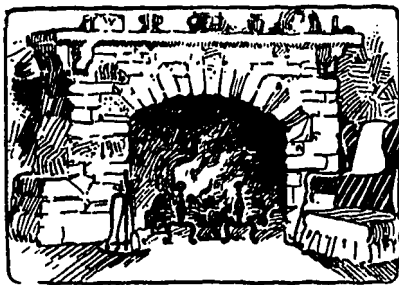

The speakers included Mrs. H. S. Prentiss Nichols, of the New Century Club; Mrs. Joseph Mumford, Honorary Vice-President of the New Century Club, who gave a report of the State Federation Convention held in Scranton; Mrs. Edward Garrigues, President of the Matinee Musical, and Miss A. E. Lauder, Secretary of the Consumers' League of Eastern Pennsylvania. The subjects talked of by the speakers were most interesting and timely.

A splendid musical program, under the club's chairman of music, Mrs. Joseph Barelay, was most delightfully rendered by Mrs. Nolte and Miss Walters. Mrs. Collins, musical director of the Matinee Musical Club, also gave what she called "Trench Rhymes," which were a great pleasure to the club members and their guests.

The luncheon was in charge of Mrs. Harry A. Jacobs, chairman of hospitality, with club members as aides. Mrs. Jacobs and her aides have the sincere thanks of every one present for a most lovely luncheon.

The next meeting of the Women's Community Club will be held Tuesday, November 25th, 3 P. M., in the club rooms Y. M. C. A. Building.

Mrs. Paul Swartz will give a ten-minute paper on "The Child Labor Laws." There will also be a violin recital by Miss Mary Gibbons.

THE FIRESIDE

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Tomblin, a son, Saturday, November 8th.

Union Memorial Service in the Methodist Church Sunday evening.

Don't forget to save Friday, December 5th, for the American Legion dance.

Mr. Langdon C. Odierne has gone on a ten-days' hunting trip to western counties of Pennsylvania.

Do you know that we have an Art Pottery Shop in Narberth at 104 Forest avenue, conducted by Mr. J. R. Aiken, a resident of Narbrook Park?

The members of the American Legion are going to give at least one dance a month in Elm Hall. There has not been enough dances in Narberth, and who would be better able to give them than members of our American Legion?

Wm. T. Harris, Jr., Horace T. Smedley, Charles McCarter, and Wm. S. Howard were among those who journeyed from Narberth to New York to see the Pennsylvania-Dartmouth game last Saturday.

Mme. Nazimova will be seen in a truly royal spectacle when the lavish screen production, "The Red Lantern," is shown on Wednesday at the Palace Theatre, Ardmore. As a spectacle the production is a revelation. The scenes of "The Feast of the Red Lantern" are most wonderfully handled and the story, that of the Boxer Rebellion in China, is marvelous. From every angle of acting, "The Red Lantern" is noteworthy.

Time to dig up your dahlia bulbs and tag them with their name or description. The experts say that the best way of preserving them through the winter is to place them in a box of sand or dry soil and turn the stems down so that any surplus moisture can drain out. The box should be kept in a place where they will not freeze or be dried out by excessive heat, neither should they be allowed to become damp. A temperature of about 40 to 60 degrees is about right. The same treatment applies to gladioli and cannas.

$100.00 TREASURY CERTIFICATES.

Thirteen of the $100.00 Certificates have been sold at the Narberth Post Office. The patrons of the office are requested to consider this very desirable investment. One office in Pennsylvania with a population of 1,800 has sold 51 of these Treasury Certificates.

Interesting Letters to the Editor

To the Editor of Our Town:

As I have never been a candidate for School Director or any other office in the borough, will you be kind enough to correct mistake printed in the November 5th issue of Our Town?
A. C. SHAND, JR.

To the Editor of Our Town:

The Memorial Committee seems to have hit on a plan which looks quite feasible and can without doubt be executed as a memorial and an investment which should appeal to every resident of our borough.

In the issue of Our Town two weeks ago the outline given of building a room as part of our present fire company building would provide a room as a permanent home for the American Legion. What better form of memorial could any community give than a lasting and useful one such as this?

The plan, the writer believes, includes placing a bronze tablet on the face of the building, showing the names of the men who went into the service from Narberth and marking those who did not return. This in itself would make a fine memorial.

However, there are facts and features to be considered and the paramount one is to provide permanent maintenance for the building, which will last as long as the Legion exists. It seems that to provide this feature the committee has to consider our Borough Council as the only logical and lasting body that would maintain the memorial. It happens that our present fire company building is not clear of encumbrance, the actual value as a property being about $15,000.00, a bond issue being against it of about $4,000.00. We could not, in all fairness to the taxpayers, ask the Councils to take over this building with a debt which would have to be paid by the taxpayers. The logical solution would be to collect a sufficient fund for the memorial to clear the indebtedness. With the building free of encumbrance, it is believed that Councils will willingly take over the project as a Memorial Town Hall.

While building the memorial room, the first floor could be made into a larger Council Chamber, which is necessary for the future, and the room could also be used for other meetings of a civic nature, such as building and loan association and other organizations, as this would give us the old Council Chamber for the use of smaller gatherings.

According to the writer's understanding, the plan includes a new front for the present building to match the architecture of the Y. M. C. A. on the adjoining plot and covers the maintenance of the entire building, including Elm Hall, as a civic centre. Minor improvements to the advantage of the fire company might also be included as part of the plan. The Narberth Fire Company is an organization which the writer does not believe is appreciated as it should be by residents of our town, when we consider that this is the only means of fire protection for Narberth and the surrounding country and that the men who do the work are strictly volunteers and offer their services and risk their lives for the protection of our buildings and furnishings. There are about 150 men in Narberth who have been paying the expenses of the Fire Company and its building through their membership fee of a few dollars a year, and only lately Borough Councils has been paying for the maintenance of the fire fighting apparatus.

The Fire Department is for the benefit of all, and what better way of supporting it and its buildings can be found than making it a part of the borough, to be maintained by the taxpayers.

The main plan, according to the com-

Meetings will be announced through the columns of "Our Town." The men who have served through the war should not lose the opportunity to become members of this organization, as it is an honor for which many would give a whole lot to attain.

The next meeting, Friday evening, November 21, at 8.00.

On Sunday evening at 7.45 a Union Memorial Service will be held in the Narberth Methodist Episcopal Church, Price and Essex avenues, conducted by the Harold D. Speakman Post, No. 356, of the American Legion.

The Presbyterian and Baptist Churches will be closed so that their members can attend this union service, to be held as a memorial service to mark the first anniversary of the armistice signing on November 11, 1918, the offering to be given to the local post of the American Legion.

It is to be regretted that the officers of the local post did not start to arrange for this service at an earlier date, as it is an occasion that should be very largely attended by people of all denominations and should be held in a larger gathering place than any of our local churches afford. Plans, however, will be made for a larger gathering on Sunday, November 14, 1920. On account of the short time to prepare for the service, it was decided to hold this one in the Methodist Church, as their flag bears two of our gold stars.

AMERICAN LEGION DANCE.

On Friday evening, December 5, at 8.30, members of the Legion will give a dance in Elm Hall so that all of their friends and neighbors can enjoy a repetition of the pleasurable gathering held on the evening of the Welcome Home Reception in October.

Committee has engaged the services of Senator's Orchestra, the same one that furnished the music for the reception dance, and it is believed that those who had the privilege of attending will again take advantage of the opportunity.

The subscription price will be $2.00 per couple, including war tax. Tickets will be distributed by the committee at the November 21 meeting, and members should have their application ready at that time, as committee is compelled to limit the number of tickets sold on account of limited accommodations, as they do not want to crowd Elm Hall to more than its comfortable capacity.

It is planned to repeat these dances every month during the winter, the second one to be given on New Year's Eve.

The committee in charge: E. H. Wipf, I. T. Ward, R. A. Mueller, D. P. Trotter, J. M. Trotter, Norman Magill.

Editorial

The management of our local Y. M. C. A. has provided hours between 8 to 9 every Tuesday evening in the gymnasium for women and high school girls.

In past years the class was well patronized, but so far this season the ladies have not turned out.

Great benefits are to be derived from systematic exercise, and as the Y. M. C. A. affords a place for classes and competent instructors, it is to be hoped that the ladies of Narberth will get organized and take advantage of the opportunity.

Ask the secretary, Mr. Dayton, or the physical instructor, Mr. Ellis, to tell you all about it.

The Memorial Services held in churches throughout the country on the Sunday nearest or most convenient to November 11, in commemoration of the signing of the Armistice, which ended the actual fighting and gave promise of peace on earth, is a service that will be in the nature of a thanksgiving not only to Americans, but to all others who took part in the World War.

Coming as it does at harvest time,

THAT BOY OR GIRL?

Make sure now of their start, their education, their chance in life by the most certain means available—a high-grade endowment policy closely calculated to cover the specific purpose intended, and at a rate you can well afford to pay. Let me show you how easily this important matter can be arranged.

when we can offer thanks for the goodness of Nature and the Lord's blessings, we can all offer a prayer of thankfulness that our boys and men, be they sons, brothers, fathers or husbands, are again a part of the family circle, a great many of them returned safe and sound, better citizens and better men for having been through the great conflict, and more than ever appreciative of the wonderful country, a part of which they are so proud to be.

At this time we will be impressed by the memory of those who did not return, some buried in the fields of France, their graves marked by a cross and held in the highest esteem by the people of the world as men who laid down their lives for their fellow-men in the defense of their own people and their own land—a sacrifice to humanity.

Those of us who were not privileged to take part in the war in the field, should feel it a duty and a privilege to reverently honor and respect those who died and those who offered their lives and their services to the same cause.

CUB'S WEEKLY LETTER

We have all heard of the Church Militant and Militant Christianity, but it remained for some of our local deacons to introduce to an astounded world what will probably be known as Millinery Christianity. One of the duties of a deacon, let me tell those who don't attend church as often as some I know, is to act as usher at church functions. There is no one better enabled to observe those peculiar contraptions which women are pleased to call hats, than an usher. Perhaps an usher can explain why women wear straw hats in winter and fur hats in summer. An usher usually recognizes a woman by her hat and knows just in what pew the owner of the hat should be seated—that's part of his business. Well, some of these deacons held a meeting at Bill Kirkpatrick's house the other night, accompanied by their wives. Unknown to their husbands, the ladies had planned to pull off a Millinery Tournament, the men being the contestants. Although somewhat surprised, these venerable and dignified deacons were good sports, and when they learned of the job that had been put up on them they entered into the spirit of the thing in earnest. Hats and trimmings were provided. Prizes were offered, and I'm not straying from the truth when I say that the first prize was a Charlotte Russe and the second a cheese sandwich. The booby prize was a lemon, and this was won by Lester Nickerson. You see, Lester's an organist, and he doesn't have any chance to usher, and thus hasn't a fair opportunity to study women's hats. I shall not attempt to describe the different creations, but they tell me that Kirk's hat resembled a tennis racket, and Walton Wentz's a tomato patch, this being no more than natural under the circumstances. Just who won the prizes, I haven't learned—the winners are too modest to announce their triumph, or probably they don't dare. What bothers me is the possibility of an epidemic of these Millinery Tournaments—which would be a calamity.

A fellow-citizen is bemoaning the loss of a valuable Chow puppy. The pup had a fondness for roaming the neighborhood and carrying home sundry goods and chattels, such as clothes-lines, garbage cans, or in fact anything not nailed down or not too heavy to carry. If he had lived to a good old age, he would no doubt have mended his ways. He evidently annoyed someone, because one day he came home with a bullet wound in his shoulder. The little thing suffered greatly, and Officer Hill soon put him out of his misery by shooting him through the head. The owner of the dog has no idea who shot it, but expressed the wish that if the dog was making a nuisance of himself to anybody and it was necessary to bring firearms into play, that the dog had been killed outright rather than maimed and caused to suffer. Hope this dog shooting business doesn't become a habit around here, or the place'll be hard to distinguish from a Western mining camp.

Doe Howard sez: "A bore is a feller that always wants t' talk about himself. A 'good conversationalist' is a guy that lets you talk about yourself."

As a memorial, the writer believes that the committee has formed a plan which cannot but appeal to everyone, and should have the backing of every resident of Narberth and the surrounding country.

It is to be trusted that the committee can agree that the plan suggested meets every requirement and that the people will back the project to the very limit.
